

LEO DECAN 3

Leo decan 3 is ruled by Mars in both systems (Aries triplicity). The Sun lords it over the constellations of the Lion, the Great Bear, the Little Bear, the Mariners Compass and the Watersnake from August 13 to 22. This is the Lion's domain, Leo decan 3 is the most stereotypical Leo of them all. The new generation will lose Regulus to Virgo, so they may be a tad less bombastic, but not by much. There are still plenty of stars left in the shimmering constellation of the Lion. The main theme with Leo Decan 3 is their belief in the divine right of kings.. ie: themselves. They are always right, their rule is absolute, any challenge to their authority is seen as a betrayal. Loyalty, loyalty and more loyalty, this is the number one demand of their loved ones. In return for their devotion to you, (and by golly they are devoted), they expect you to defend the values of the pride to the nth degree. Any deviation is a sign of rebellion and must be crushed. Leo decan 3 will give you the strong leadership you desire, but only if you submit to their authority 100%.

Less ego-driven signs have a hard time with Leo decan 3 and may feel eclipsed by them at times. It is quite awe-inspiring to watch just how confident and regal these people are in their dealings with everyday life. Even if it plainly obvious that they are actually wrong about something, their self-belief is so strong that they can convince themselves and others that they are actually right. Barefaced cheek and arrogance they are often accused of...Another trait is bitchiness, but oh how they are entertaining with it! They take this ability to cut someone dead with a one-liner to a high art form. Again this is quite awesome, but extremely painful if you find yourself in their firing line. Bottom line, the lion is a man-eating beast. It can be bitterly cruel when threatened. You really want these folk on your side for they will fight and defend you until they have spilt their last drop of blood. Blood is a big thing with them, blood ties, bloody-mindedness, blood boiling in their veins and they don't squirm at the sight of it either.

DIVINE RIGHT OF KINGS

The negative side of these Lions is cruelty and vengeance since the malefic Mars pushes an already fiery Leo decan 3 to the very limit. They often don't know when to give up, rather like the Black Knight sketch in Monty Python & The Holy Grail. Even as a stump with a head, he is still yelling 'Come on then! I'll bite your legs off'.

There are some very strong women in the native's line-up. Margaret Thatcher literally 'The Iron Lady' has Mars here. These formidable lionesses go out on the hunt and bring home the bacon while their male counterparts sleep all day, waking only for sex and to bark orders. Stalking...that is another trait of this sector. Leo decan 3's mates may get the feeling every move they make is being watched and recorded somewhere. It's a little unnerving. When in the lion's presence you really should not leave until the mighty paw has decreed your time together has expired. Even if they get infuriatingly bossy, it's quite hard to leave them anyway because they are so darn sexy. How can one resist such regal poise, passion, stunning self-confidence and hot-blooded sex drive?

There is a chink in their armour though. Betrayal.. Minor disloyalty, like taking sides against them in a political debate, might warrant a day of lion huff. But sexual unfaithfulness is high treason. This is their mortal wound. They will crawl off into a cave for weeks, months or even years because of it. Some of the more fiery ones will spend that time plotting revenge, others will sink into a major depression. The loss of pride and regal face is just too much to take. The problem is the huge, golden pedestal they built for themselves. Falling off such a great height is going to hurt. Revenge is also something that they need to avoid since those with Regulus hold such great responsibility.

"King; from the Indo-European root Reg, 'To move in a straight line, lead, rule. Derivatives: right (as in a privilege or legal claim), also morally correct, just, good, fair, proper, fitting, straight'". Yes, they DO have to be right. This is of course why the constellation Leo's alpha star is called Regulus. Regulus being an archangel star promises honours and elite status, but that comes with a price. Only if these folk avoid vengeful actions can they keep their crown. Otherwise, as the saying goes, pride comes before a fall.

Regulus is frequently brandished as a fortunate star. Its success comes from making daring, impulsive leaps. But Regulus can also fail spectacularly too, so they need to plan carefully. If we look at how cats hunt we get an idea. They slowly creep up on their prey (or project). It looks like nothing is happening for ages and then boom, suddenly they are there. Shockingly carnal with saucer-wide, black eyes, high from the adrenalin rush. Regulus's instincts take over and then congeniality goes out the window. After that, they show off like nobody's business, proudly displaying their prize catch. This may be seen to be quite vulgar and uncouth even,.. but they are forgiven! These cats have big generous hearts, and their unashamed pride, openness and honesty are refreshing.

The tarot card associated with this decan is the 7 of wands. This is a card of giving it your all and of competitiveness. The keywords certainly fit well with Mars ruled Leo decan 3. "Rivalry, Competition, Territory, Maintaining Power/Control, Staying at The Top, Resolve, Leader, Power, Control, Principles, Taking The Higher Ground, Holding Your Own, Strong Personality, Assertive, Being Certain/Convinced, Being Forceful... Defensive/Aggressive, Under Attack, Fighting..." Interestingly even gossip is in there which can be a theme here with the poison that flies out of Alfred's neck. Karmically this can be a lifetime when "when you must stand up for yourself and not let others take advantage of you...." those who are more confident will have "bright burning ambition. It suggests that you are going after what you want and are prepared to fight your way to the top. Your personality is strong and forthright and you are very confident in your approach. Your convictions are strong too and you believe passionately in what you are doing. Make sure to pace yourself. You do not want to burn out before you reach the finish line." ~ Teachmetarot

Magnitude. Star position for the year 2000.*

Tania Australis is a red star in the paw of the great mother bear. These stars in Ursa major have a Mars quality according to Ptolemy. "It is said to give a quiet, prudent, suspicious, mistrustful, self-controlled, patient nature, but an uneasy spirit and great anger and revengefulness when roused." Ras Elased Borealis and Ras Elased Australis are two stars in the lion's head. The Ebertins say these head stars can give rise to mental illness and depression in a primitive person, depending on how they are configured. While Noonan says they "are said to indicate those with an appreciation for language and a power of expression, but also those who may be heartless and cruel." Ras Elased Australis has its own interpretation from Robson "It gives a bold, bombastic, cruel, heartless, brutish and destructive nature, but artistic appreciation"

Pherkad is found in the Little Bear Ursa Minor. The constellation gives "indifference and improvidence of spirit, and to lead to many troubles." Though ancient navigators looked upon them as guardians and guides since they are close to the poles. Subra is in the right knee of the Lion and has no interpretation only that "those in the thighs resemble Venus, and, in some degree, Mercury." This spells charm to me and also that acid wit. Pyxis Nautica is in the mariner's compass another guiding star. Pyxis is a small box and the mast of a ship. The Latin for mast is Malus, which also means apple tree. So together we get the voice box and Adam's apple. "Folklore has it that the 'forbidden fruit' offered by Eve got stuck in Adam's throat, hence the prominent voice box in men. The forbidden fruit was of the tree of knowledge of good and evil. Pyxis is a compass. The expression 'moral compass' is the notion that prompts people to choose and behave in certain ways."

It is imperative then that Leo decan 3 leaders and lawmakers have a strong sense of right and wrong. They also have the say in who gets to 'eat' the elite knowledge too. They are guardians of the truth, but again this carries great responsibility. Since people will listen to them without question, they need to make sure they are giving out high quality, well-researched information. "King; from the Indo-European root Reg, 'To move in a straight line, lead, rule. Derivatives: right (as in a privilege or legal claim), also morally correct, just, good, fair, proper, fitting, straight'". Yes, they DO have to be right. This is of course why Leo's alpha star is called Regulus.

Alfard is in the neck of the Hydra the watersnake. Like Unukalhai in the neck of Serpens, there are a good few singers with this and we have already mentioned Adam's apple with Pyxis. Alfard "gives wisdom, musical and artistic appreciation, knowledge of human nature, strong passions, lack of self-control, immorality, revolting deeds..." Oh dear, it's that snake problem again. These folk are ultra sensitive to poisons, so they need to keep away from intoxicants. Another price Leo decan 3 has to pay if they want to maintain their authority. They must demonstrate purity and virtue or risk losing respect if they spew out a drug-induced rant. "Particularly matters connected with 'poison' are accentuated badly, e.g. blood poisoning, murder by poison, attempts of poisoning, poisoned hatred in women, gas poisoning, danger to life by wrong use of drugs and overindulgence of good living.....A 'poisoning' is also possible in a relationship between man and woman in marriage. This is especially true in a male chart." [1] The Hydra was a particularly loathsome creature, cut off one head and three would grow in its place. The only way to stop it would be to burn and seal the stump. This could refer to deep-rooted treacherous karma that needs slaying. This, of course, takes great courage, which takes us back to the Lion.

The next set of stars in the lion's mane seem to pick up on the toxic nature of their serpentine neighbour Alfard. Adhafera "is connected with suicide poison, corrosive acids, liquid explosives, liquid fire, lying, stealing and crime." But rising it gives success in the military or sports and gives wealth. Al Jabah is militant "It gives loss and many dangers, a violent and intemperate nature, and to a military officer danger of mutiny and murder by his soldiers." especially when rising. Algieba is the brightest of these mane stars and falls in the star pattern that resembles the sickle in Leo's head which also looks like an inverted question mark. It has no interpretation. Also within this sector fall some of the stars of a now defunct constellation called Felis the cat which sat in between Hydra and Pyxis.

Last but certainly not least is Leo decan 3's jewel in the crown Regulus. This bright triple star flashes white and ultramarine. Regulus, Cor Leonis (Lionheart) is one of the four royal Persian stars and archangels that guarded the cardinal points in the heavens (circa 3000-2500 BC). It also lies directly on the Sun's ecliptic path making it extra powerful. I have an old post about Regulus which talks about this star specifically. Most of the character traits mentioned in the first section apply to this royal star. Traditionally it has mixed reviews, verging from great fortune, status, honour and fame to scandal, downfall, disgrace and ruin. Much depends on how Regulus is configured in the chart.

Regulus is frequently brandished as a fortunate star. Its success comes from daring, impulsive leaps. But they can also fail spectacularly too so they need to plan carefully. If we look at how cats hunt we get an idea. They slowly creep up on their prey (or project). It looks like nothing is happening for ages and then boom, suddenly they are there. Shocking, carnal, with saucer black eyes high from the adrenalin blood rush. Their instincts take over and congeniality goes out the window. After that they show off like nobody's business, proudly displaying their prize catch. This may get quite vulgar and uncouth even, but they are forgiven. These cats have big generous hearts, and their unashamed pride, openness and honesty are refreshing.

According to Ptolemy "Regulus is of the nature of Mars and Jupiter, but most later authors liken it to Mars only, while Alvidas states that it is similar to the Sun in good aspect to Uranus. It gives violence, destructiveness, military honor of short duration, with ultimate failure, imprisonment, violent death, success, high and lofty ideals and strength of spirit, and makes its natives magnanimous, grandly liberal, generous, ambitious, fond of power, desirous of command, high-spirited and independent." [1]

LEO DECAN 3 ~ PLANETS & ANGLES

ASCENDANT LEO 3

Alfard 27° ~ "Much trouble, anxiety and loss in connection with estates and building; addicted to women and intemperance" [3] and (Heliacal rising star) "To live one's life passionately, to prefer the intense to the calm, to admire and seek to emulate the creative passion of others. Being drawn, intentionally or not, to intense emotional encounters." [4]

Adhafera 27° ~ " Gives great military preferment (can be in sports also) and riches. [5b]

Regulus 29° ~ "Great honor and wealth, but violence and trouble, sickness, fevers, acute disease, benefits seldom last, favor of the great, victory over enemies and scandal." [5a] and "It may convey royal properties, noble mind, frankness, courage. The importance of this star is accentuated by its nearness to the ecliptic. Its effect is in the best sense that of Jupiter and Mars. On the Ascendant, it will give a courageous and frank character" [1] and (Heliacal rising star) " A strong belief in the correctness of one's position, or path. A drive to succeed, to shine, or to move forward in one's life while needing to resist the urge to take any form of revenge." [6]

The ascendant gives the purest expression of the decan's energy since no planets will colour its expression, so most of the general section meaning will hold true for this position and the person will embody the decan as a whole. The ascendant is also the relationship axis, so the influences above will play out mostly in how the subject relates to others. With Leo decan 2 the 'Divine Right Of King' behaviour will be most notable in love relationships. Without a doubt, this must be the most authoritarian ascendant you can have. This is the boss no question. Not everyone born with this decan rising has to be typically bossy or domineering, but they are natural born leaders depending on how the rest of the chart is configured. Any planet conjunct the Ascendant will show what style of king or queen they are too, but all will expect you to show them loyalty and respect. Since the Ascendant is the physical body it is amusing to see that some subjects often embody the look of the lion, sporting a golden mane or possessing an oversized head. Their demeanour will be very upright and regal too and they will be the sort to carry 'airs and graces'. The daring, impulsive leaps and courage are most pronounced with the ascendant. The pouncing action will be one of their bedroom tricks in relationships.

ASCENDANT LEO 3 EXAMPLES: Donald Trump, George H. W. Bush, Edgar Cayce, Indira Gandhi, Anita Byrant, Martin Scorsese, O. J Simpson, Vanessa Redgrave, David Tennant, Ian McShane, Stephen Fry, Cynthia Payne, Luciano Pavarotti, Elton John, Robbie Williams, Justin Timberlake, Natalie Cole, Herb Albert, Morrissey, Tony Abbot, Ted Bundy, Marilyn Manson, Beatrice Dalle, Katie Holmes, Jessica Adams, Demetra George, Barbara Hand Clow, Mystic Meg, Mary Wollstonecraft, Golda Meir, Henri Matisse, Frida Khalo, Edouard Manet, Claude Debussy, Albrecht Durer, Delhi Rape, Malala Yousafzai, Madeleine McCann, Ceres Discovery Chart, Sonny/Cher Davison, Charles/Camilla Davison.

MIDHEAVEN LEO 3

Alfard 27° ~ (On a pivot point.) "A direct, no-nonsense, hard-hitting approach to life, which will cascade into one's physical world. At times ruthless, at other times sexual, and in worst case situations even vengeful. Physically assertive and forthright" [4]

Regulus 29° ~ "Honor, preferment, good fortune, high office under Government, military success. If with Sun, Moon or Jupiter, great honor and ample fortune." [1] also "Regulus will raise the native to high positions in life, positions far exceeding the environment the native was born into. On the MC it is not only a good omen for a military career, but also for careers connected with the public, such as lawyers, civil servants, bankers and the clergy will bring with it connections with rulers, honorable people or famous people. People like this can reach high positions, positions of trust, preferment and favors; fortunes. Riches and power could fall to these natives easily. An old saying goes that Regulus in the 10th house 'makes astrologers to kings, people in high positions and noblemen'." [1] and (At a pivot point.) "To find oneself both a natural leader; one who is able to rise above the petty squabbles of others." [6]

The Midheaven, like the Ascendant, will also give an unfiltered lens through which to view the decan. In this case, the public views the subject as behaving very much in the manner of the general meaning of the decan. The subject may also see their parents as having the "divine right of kings" attributes of Leo decan 2. I didn't find any proof of royal astrologers here. Instead, there are some ruthless characters, whether these folk are actually beastly is hard to say. Leo midheaven 2 can either project the image of someone regal and high status or they can give off the beastly side of the lion, appearing ruthless and in the case of women, man-eating. The parents of folk with this position would take their role very seriously, their blood ties are very important to them and they will fight to the death to defend their pack.

SUN LEO 3

Alford 27° ~ " Power and authority but suffering through own acts and from enemies, loss of position and honor, overcome by enemies. [3]. " To have strong passions, to be a victim or perpetrator of violent or aggressive actions. To feel angry at injustices, or be subject to mistreatment by authority figures. An occasion of apparent ruthlessness." [4]

Regulus 29° ~ " Power, authority, great influence over friends, honor and riches, but violence, trouble and ultimate disgrace and ruin, sickness, fevers, benefits seldom last. [3.] "A person who holds the high expectation of others. One who receives honours and awards, but who needs to be wary of vengefulness. A time of noble, or military endeavours." [6]

Power and authority, says it all really! Regulus officially entered Virgo in 2011. However, Regulus was still in Leo decan 3 when the list of natives below were born (And therefore most people reading this) so we cannot ignore Regulus's effects for this decan. Of course, then these felines were born to rule, and they take to the stage like a duck to water. Physical prowess is part of their makeup and they tend to be famous as much for their animal magnetism as whatever their talents might be. Sun Leo 3's sex appeal is legendary, but can also become an obsession for them. Sex addiction is a danger for this placement if the native has no other outlet for their fertile creative expression. (Some still persist despite a demanding job, see Clinton or Madonna.) The Sun is at its most theatrical in Leo and desperately needs to create or procreate. Therefore if they don't breed many physical babies then the talented ones will produce artistic progeny instead. 'Drama queen' and 'diva' are cliché keywords to describe the Leo archetype, but it is never truer than in this decan. Sun Leo 3 works especially well under pressure and their heroic side rises superbly to the occasion if they are suddenly thrown into a crisis. Here are the white knights and courageous queens who are always on amber alert. The downside of Sun Leo 3 is that they often don't know how to live without preparing for the next conquest. The slightest poke will get this cat's fur standing on end. Sun Leo 3 needs to learn that it is not responsible for all the cubs or artistic project all of the time and needs to learn to delegate.

SUN LEO 3 EXAMPLES: Napoleon Bonaparte, Bill Clinton, Gene Roddenberry, Madonna, Roman Polanski, Edward Norton, Alfred Hitchcock, Mae West, Robert De Niro, Steve Martin, Ben Affleck, Sean Penn, Robert Redford, Kim Cattrall, Halle Berry, Patrick Swayze, Madeleine Stowe, Christian Slater, Amy Fisher, Matthew Perry, Debra Messing, David Walliams, Jeff Stryker, Robert Plant, Keith Moon, Tori Amos, Belinda Carlisle, Sarah Brightman, Gene Kelly, George Melly, Claude Debussy, Antonio Salieri, John Logie Baird, Herb Ritts, Aubrey Beardsley, H. P Lovecraft, T.E Lawrence, Coco Chanel, Sri Aurobindo, Princess Margaret, Princess Anne, David Koresh, Robert

Thompson, Jon Venables, Usain Bolt, Thierry Henry, Magic Johnson, Madonna/Penn Davison, India, South Korea, Pakistan.

MOON LEO 3

Alford 27° ~ "Lust, wantonness, profligacy, failure in projects but financial help often from a relative, ill-fortune to wife or mother, eventual disgrace and ruin, danger of death by asphyxiation." [3]. "Difficulties with receiving love and nurturing, a tragic mother figure. A ruthless attitude to life, a passion for one's own pursuits. A period when the safety of the home or homeland is at risk." [4]

Regulus 29° ~ "Occult interests, powerful friends, danger from enemies and false friends, gain by speculation, public prominence, great power, honor, wealth, benefits seldom last, violence, trouble and sickness. Make women high spirited and independent.[3] "A natural leader who leads by love and devotion, rather than power or authority. To be drawn to a humanitarian career and to be loved by others. Event-driven, pride in success and anger at failure." [6]

We only need to look at the list below to find proof of the leadership qualities of the moon here. These natives make formidable commanders in times of war when life or death decisions need to be made quickly. The Moon adds a nurturing touch, but we still get tough-love. That means the native has to risk making short-term, austerity measures for the sake of long-term prosperity. Moon Leo 3 will not sugar-coat for the sake of popularity. In a sign that seems so ego-driven, it is surprising perhaps that these people are actually more about helping others than themselves. It depends on how evolved the soul is, with other harsh aspects there can be a ruthless drive and tyrannical tendencies. Often these natives have a difficult childhood where they really have to fight to be themselves. This leaves them tough and belligerent that in some become more forceful as they age. It all depends how ignited these tendencies are by other factors in the chart. Despite all, even when these natives rub people up the wrong way, they are admired for their great courage. As the head of a nation, company or family, they are trailblazers and will do whatever it takes to protect those in their care. The roaring lioness who protects her cubs is the most obvious symbol. At the mundane level, this is the great patriot willing to die for their country. It is certainly best to keep these natives as your friend and not an enemy! Loyalty is their number one demand, so woe betide you if you betray them. (especially those with Moon close to Alford!) At worst, the Moon Leo 3 native suffers greatly if they stoop to revenge, and they won't care who else they bring down with them.

MOON LEO 3 EXAMPLES: Winston Churchill, Margaret Thatcher, Eva Peron, Mohandas Gandhi, Benjamin Disraeli, Prince Phillip, Mahmoud Ahmadinejad, Captain Beefheart, George Michael, Carlos Santana, Tom Selleck, Robert De Niro, Julia Roberts, Helena Bonham Carter, Jane Fonda, Tony Hancock, Guglielmo Marconi, Jeane Dixon, Lynndie England, Anne Frank, Anna Kournikova, Venus Williams.

MERCURY LEO 3

Alford 27° ~ "Trouble through writings, unfavourable for marriage, suffering through a passionate attachment that entirely changes the course of the life." [3] and "The one who reveals or is the holder of secrets, an investigating mind, a sharp tongue. A lover of rituals. Secrets are revealed or a vitriolic outburst." [4]

Regulus 29° ~ "Honorable, just, popular, generosity abused by opponents, fame, gain through high position." [3] and "To have a grand design, to inspire people with an idea. To receive recognition for noble ideas but the need to avoid revenge and refuse to be baited by gossip" [6]

Leo decan 3 carries with it great authority, so they often have a say in who gets to 'eat' the forbidden fruit of elite knowledge. They are guardians of the truth, but again this carries great responsibility. The proles will listen to Leo decan 2 without question so they need to make sure they are giving out high quality, well-researched information. The great courage of Leo decan 3 means these folk might see themselves as keyboard warriors. Austin Coppock calls this decan 'The banner' and says that "While this face may abound with images of noble heroes defending the right, just as many tyrants grace its halls, unwilling to yield their thrones no matter the human cost" [7] Journalists and writers with this position will often have a very sharp tongue and there can be spiteful words of vengeance too. There is the tendency to be brought down by gossip. Otherwise, this is a person who is employed to write 'Clickbait' articles that ruin a person's reputation. A biting wit is seen here in some of the natives. Since Mars is the ruler of this decan then we could see a war of words too. This is definitely the most aggressive of the Leo decans so it is not surprising to see words doing a great deal of damage when Mercury is in this decan. At the same time, this is a decan of occulted, elite knowledge too which may come out in the pens of writers and artists with Mercury here.

MERCURY LEO 3 EXAMPLES: Ivan The Terrible, Hallie Selassie I, Ernest Hemingway, Johann von Goethe, Emily Bronte, Tim Burton, Sandra Bullock, Robin Williams, Peter Sellers, Arnie Hammer, Lisa Kudrow, Lynda Carter, Gene Kelly, Diana Rigg, Charlize Theron, Helen Mirren, David Hasselhoff, Martin Freeman, Charlie Sheen, Natalie Wood, Charlotte Gainsbourg, Michael Jackson, Barry Gibb, Patsy Cline, Chris Cornell, Florence Swelch, Slash, Van Morrison, Charlie Parker, Stewart Copeland, Vincenzo Lancia, Jessie James.

VENUS LEO 3

Alford 27° ~ Passionate attachments that are opposed by relatives, handsome and admired by opposite sex, favorable for gain, sorrow through love affairs if female. [3] and "To be harshly the one who reveals or is the holder of secrets, an investigating mind, a sharp tongue. A lover of rituals" [4]

Regulus 29° ~ "Many disappointments, unexpected happenings, violent attachments, trouble through love affairs.." [3]

If we had to pick the most Queenly position for Venus in any decan then this would be it! Unfortunately, because this decan is ruled by Mars, Venus finds its quite uncomfortable here as you can see from the star example above. However, those who are born in the 1st half of the decan escape the diva behaviour of Regulus or Alford's poisonous tongue. Much depends on the evolution of the soul with this position as they this could very easily manifest as the man-eating and voracious female. Aspects and house position can also dampen the femme fatal potential. Whichever way you look at it, this position seems much more difficult to deal with for women than it is for men despite the Queen potential. It could just be that men find the sense of entitlement that comes with this position quite hard to deal with, plus Venus here also has the potential to be narcissistic too. On the other hand, male natives might be attracted to women with these traits and end up playing then co-dependent. I have found people with Venus Leo 3 who are might give the impression of being a femme fatale but are actually quite insecure. Instead of being narcissists themselves they become magnets for narcissists due to their stunning queen-like looks. Here is where we also find trophy wives. The sorrow comes when Venus Leo 3 realises that they are not loved for their soul but for their packaging. This is a challenging position for females no doubt, but later in life, it becomes super wise and courageous. The native rises like the phoenix from the flames, re-claims her sovereignty and then helps other females become Queen themselves.

VENUS LEO 3 EXAMPLES: The 14th Dalai Lama, Marine Le Pen, George W. Bush, Henrich Himmler, Jimmy Carter, Theresa May, William Wallace, Albert Prince Consort, Howard Hughes, Marcello Mastrianni, Tori Amos, Beck, Amy Winehouse, Rufus Wainwright, Cheryl Cole, Harry Connick Jr, Sylvester Stallone, Clive Owen, Gina Lollobrigida, David Duchovny, Daniel Radcliffe, Gwyneth Paltrow, Salma Hayek, Carol Lombard, Pamela Anderson, Monica Lewinsky, Greek Referendum, Martin Heidegger, Paulo Coelho, George Grosz, Andy Warhol, George Pompidou, John Logie Baird, Dita von Teese.

MARS LEO 3

Alford 27° ~ "Trouble and scandal through love affairs. Attachment to a married person. Bad for childbirth, if a woman liable to miscarriage and death, together with death of child, danger of serious accidents; if afflicting luminaries, danger of death by drowning or poison." [3]. "To have an aggressive attitude in achieving one's goals. A passionate environmentalist whose desire to help can lead to damaging other groups. The ruthless action of an individual or group." [4]

Regulus 29° ~ "Honor, fame, strong character public prominence, high military command." [3] "A team leader; interested in sports or action-filled activities. To be able to maintain faith in one's skills. The hero wins the day." [4] and "when Mars or Saturn are in conjunction with Regulus, especially exciting events are always recorded e.g. assassinations, coup d'états, revolutions, revolts, demonstrations, overthrow of heads of state and similar events". [1]

Mars is supremely strong in this decan that it rules. Formidable, passionate and persuasive. It is very hard to say no to these red lions once they have got you between their claws. These folk make the very best stalkers and will easily love-bomb you into submission if you are their 'chosen'. Mars's sex and violence traits heated up by the very pushy Regulus is asking for trouble. Alford brings scandal into the mix too. This hotbed of spicy influences might explain why there are some infamous sexual murderers on the list below. However, as these lions mature they learn to tame their passionate libido and channel it into more honourable pursuits. Mars Leo 3's comparative streak is very hard to temper, however, and Mars ignites their revenge button the moment anyone betrays or disrespects them. Pride is something they find very hard to swallow too, so forget the apology, no matter how much they have wronged you. Even the very evolved ones will find a way of turning things around so that they come up on top. This is hierarchy in its most blatant form, but the wisest ones really do deserve the crown they have worked so hard for. These folk are not conniving or duplicitous, so as brash as Mars Leo 3 are, they are generally liked. What you see is what you get!

MARS LEO 3 EXAMPLES: Donald Trump, Benjamin Netanyahu, Henry Ford, Manly P Hall, Eckhart Tolle, Caravaggio, William Joseph Turner, William Blake, Le Corbusier, Sylvia Plath, Pedro Almodovar, Guy Ritchie, River Phoenix, Daniel Radcliffe, Lourdes Leon, Jason Connery, James Jagger, Claudia Schiffer, Martin Sheen, Mike Myers, Ralph Fiennes, Mark Hamill, Jim Henson, Ricky Gervais, Frank Sinatra, Amy Winehouse, Sting, Boy George, Suzanne Vega, Demis Roussos, Edith Piaf, Nana Mouskouri, Alison Moyet, June Carter Cash, Brian Eno, Antonio Salieri, Igor Stravinsky, Peter Sutcliffe, Myra Hindley, Edward Gein, Carlos The Jackal, Mystic Meg, Yasmin Le Bon, Miuccia Prada, Emperor Hirohito, David Cameron, State Of Israel, Republic Of Italy, Arsene Wenger.
